Mrs. Cleary listened with an anxious air, while she constantly applied a handkerchief to her eyes.

Why He Objected to Newman. Why He Objected to Newman.

Cleary said he had no distinct recollection of events after he left his house a few hours after he received the report. He objected to Newman on account of his family, he said, and after his daughter was graduated from the high school in 1911 he took a furnished apartment in New York so she could not see Newman any more. He had done everything to discourage the intimacy between his daughter and Newman.
